

AFFAIRS OF STATES

ALL THE ANSWERS

TEXAS

1. Capital: Austin.
2. Oil, Natural Gas.
3. Cotton.

UTAH

1. Capital: Salt Lake City.
2. It goes along on very little water.
3. Because he was Brigham Young.

VERMONT

1. Capital: Montpelier.
2. Because it produces about nine-tenths of the nation's asbestos.
3. Because it comes from the French words meaning "green mountain."

VIRGINIA

1. Capital: Richmond.
2. Because their portraits appear on money. (Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe.)
3. Because tobacco is Virginia's largest crop.

WASHINGTON

1. Capital: Olympia.
2. Rainier.
3. Washington is a leading producer of apples.

WEST VIRGINIA

1. Capital: Charleston.
2. Because it's the nation's leading producer of coal.
3. General "Stonewall" Jackson.

WISCONSIN

1. Capital: Madison.
2. Because it's the Milky Way.
3. Beer. (Wisconsin is the nation's largest supplier.)

WYOMING

1. Capital: Cheyenne.
2. Cattle and sheep.
3. Oil is its leading industry.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

1. Capital: Concord.
2. Because it's the Merrimack.
3. Because it's Portsmouth.

NEW JERSEY

1. Capital: Trenton.
2. Because it's Newark.
3. Thomas Alva Edison (the electric light)

NEW MEXICO

1. Capital: Santa Fe
2. Because the Navajos have the country's largest reservation. (More than 16 million acres.)
3. Uranium. (New Mexico has more than two-thirds of the nation's known reserves.)

NEW YORK

1. Capital: Albany.
2. It was the first capitol of the United States. (1789-90)
3. Because it runs from the Atlantic Ocean to the Great Lakes.

NORTH CAROLINA

1. Capital: Raleigh.
2. The Wright Brothers at Kitty Hawk (1903).
3. Because it was Bath. (1706)

NORTH DAKOTA

1. Capital: Bismarck.
2. Agriculture.
3. You'd have Grand Forks.

OHIO

1. Capital: Columbus.
2. Because it's steel.
3. Cincinnati.

OKLAHOMA

1. Capital: Oklahoma City.
2. Because it's the Mistletoe.
3. It's the Sooner State.

OREGON

1. Capital: Salem.
2. It has more trees than any other state. (30 Million acres.)
3. It's the nation's deepest lake. (1,932 feet.)

PENNSYLVANIA

1. Capital: Harrisburg.
2. By putting the nation's first radio station on the air. (1920)
3. Because they're miners. And produce almost all of this nation's hard coal.

RHODE ISLAND

1. Capital: Providence.
2. Because it's a Red Maple.
3. In its name. Our smallest state is not an island.

SOUTH CAROLINA

1. Capital: Columbia.
2. One borders the Mark (West German currency) and the other marks the border. (Between South Carolina and Georgia.)
3. Charleston.

SOUTH DAKOTA

1. Capital: Pierre.
2. True. The town of Lead is the nation's leading gold mining center.
3. Rapid City.

TENNESSEE

1. Capital: Nashville.
2. Because it's an iris.
3. Because it's surrounded by eight states. (Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina and Virginia.)

ALABAMA

1. Capital: Montgomery.
2. Because it's Mobile.
3. The Creeks.

ALASKA

1. Capital: Juneau.
2. Because it's the "forget-me-not".
3. It's filled with "Fjords".

ARIZONA

1. Capital: Phoenix.
2. It supplies more than half the country's copper.
3. Because it's the "Grand" Canyon (217 miles long, one mile deep.)

ARKANSAS

1. Capital: Little Rock.
2. Because it's Magazine Mountain (2853 feet.)
3. It produces a lot of oil.

CALIFORNIA

1. Capital: Sacramento.
2. Agriculture, commercial fishing, motor vehicles and Californians.
3. True. The name, California, comes from an imaginary island in a 16th century Spanish romance.

COLORADO

1. Capital: Denver.
2. Because it has a mint.
3. They were both received from France.

CONNECTICUT

1. Capital: Hartford.
2. Because it's "a robin".
3. Because it's hard to spell.

DELAWARE

1. Capital: Dover.
2. Because he was a "Hudson". (Henry)
3. Wilmington was first called Fort Christina.

FLORIDA

1. Capital: Tallahassee.
2. Lake Kissimmee.
3. The Florida Keys.

GEORGIA

1. Capital: Atlanta.
2. Because Georgia raises more "peanuts" than any other state.
3. One stations plants and the other plantations.

HAWAII

1. Capital: Honolulu.
2. Hawaii used to be called the Sandwich Islands.
3. Because sugar cane is the major crop.

IDAHO

1. Capital: Boise.
2. Because it's called Hell's Canyon.
3. Because Idaho produces more silver than any other state.

ILLINOIS

1. Capital: Springfield.
2. Because they grow more corn than almost any other state.
3. Chicago's O'Hare.

INDIANA

1. Capital: Indianapolis.
2. Because he won the Battle of Tippecanoe.
3. Because it's the Hoosier State.

IOWA

1. Capital: Des Moines.
2. Iowa grows more popcorn than any other state.
3. They live in the Hawkeye state.

KANSAS

1. Capital: Topeka.
2. Dodge city.
3. The “Pawnees”.

KENTUCKY

1. Capital: Frankfort.
2. Because it's the Goldenrod.
3. They're looking for the Kentucky Derby.

LOUISIANA

1. Capital: Baton Rouge.
2. Because it has the world's longest bridge.
(the Lake Pontchartrain Causeway—126,055 feet.)
3. Because he was called “Old Hickory”. (Andrew Jackson)

MAINE

1. Capital: Augusta.
2. Because it gives so much shade. (Four fifths of Maine is covered with forests.)
3. Because he was a Longfellow. (Henry W.)

MARYLAND

1. Capital: Annapolis.
2. Because he was a key. (Frances Scott)
3. Because it's a black-eyed Susan.

MASSACHUSETTS

1. Capital: Boston.
2. The Mayflower Compact.
3. Because it was a Plymouth Rock.

MICHIGAN

1. Capital: Lansing.
2. Flint.
3. It's the world's largest producer of cars.

MINNESOTA

1. Capital: St. Paul.
2. Paul Bunyan.
3. The Sioux.

MISSISSIPPI

1. Capital: Jackson.
2. He was born there. (Tennessee Williams)
3. Biloxi.

MISSOURI

1. Capital: Jefferson City.
2. Twain (Mark)
3. Because it's a Bluebird.

MONTANA

1. Capital: Helena.
2. The Blackfeet.
3. Montana grows about three million Christmas trees
each year.

NEBRASKA

1. Capital: Lincoln.
2. It's the country's largest livestock and meat packing center.
3. About 850 miles.

NEVADA

1. Capital: Carson City.
2. Because it hardly ever rains (only 7.4 inches annual average).
3. Because it's a sagebrush.